

ESL Class: Weeks of Dec 1 & 8

- Big Ideas:
 - Questions and instructions (imperatives)
 - “Do-support” statements (declaratives)
 - Applying to Christmas and New Year’s vocabulary
 - ex. “Did you have a nice Christmas?” “Yes, I did have a nice Christmas.”
- Opening Prayers: Hail Mary, Glory Be and Oh My Jesus
- Use of “do / did” in imperatives (questions)
 - Do you know him?
 - Question forms may include:
 - Do you?
 - Have you?
 - Can you?
 - What is?
 - How are?
 - Have you?
- Formulating responses by turning questions into statements by dropping the “question words:
 - Do you know him? >> Yes, I do know him.
 - Have you been to New York? >> Yes, I have been to New York.
 - Can I have that paper? >> Yes, you can have that paper.
 - Note, when the indefinite is used as a question, the response may require the definite form;
ex.
 - Did you see any horses? >> No, I saw no horses
 - or, the question could be definite and the answer indefinite,
ex.:
 - Do you have some change? >> No, I do not have any change
- Applying questions and responses to Christmas and New Year’s vocabulary handout
- Closing Prayer: “Hail, Holy Queen” (Salve Regina)
